INSTRUCTIONS FOR FLORIDA SUPREME COURT APPROVED
FAMILY LAW FORM 12.980(a)
PETITION FOR INJUNCTION FOR PROTECTION AGAINST DOMESTIC VIOLENCE (08/23)

When should this form be used?

If you are a victim of any act of domestic violence or have reasonable cause to believe that you are in imminent danger of becoming a victim of domestic violence, you can use this form to ask the court for a protective order prohibiting domestic violence. Because you are making a request to the court, you are called the petitioner. The person whom you are asking the court to protect you from is called the respondent. Domestic violence includes: assault, aggravated assault, battery, aggravated battery, sexual assault, sexual battery, stalking, aggravated stalking, kidnapping, false imprisonment, or any other criminal offense resulting in physical injury or death to petitioner by any of petitioner's family or household members. In determining whether you have reasonable cause to believe you are in imminent danger of becoming a victim of domestic violence, the court must consider all relevant factors alleged in the petition, including, but not limited to the following:

1. The history between the petitioner and the respondent, including threats, harassment, stalking, and physical abuse.
2. Whether the respondent has attempted to harm the petitioner or family members or individuals closely associated with the petitioner.
3. Whether the respondent has threatened to conceal, kidnap, or harm the petitioner's child or children.
4. Whether the respondent has intentionally injured or killed a family pet.
5. Whether the respondent has used, or has threatened to use, against the petitioner any weapons such as guns or knives.
6. Whether the respondent has physically restrained the petitioner from leaving the home or calling law enforcement.
7. Whether the respondent has a criminal history involving violence or the threat of violence.
8. The existence of a verifiable order of protection issued previously or from another jurisdiction.
9. Whether the respondent has destroyed personal property, including, but not limited to, telephones or other communications equipment, clothing, or other items belonging to the petitioner.
10. Whether the respondent has or had engaged in a pattern of abusive, threatening, intimidating, or controlling behavior composed of a series of acts over a period of time, however short, which evidences a continuity of purpose and which reasonably causes the petitioner to believe that the petitioner or his or her minor child or children are in imminent danger of becoming victims of any act of domestic violence.
11. Whether the respondent engaged in any other behavior or conduct that leads the petitioner to have reasonable cause to believe that he or she is in imminent danger of becoming a victim of domestic violence.

The domestic violence laws only apply to your situation if the respondent is your spouse, former spouse, related to you by blood or marriage, living with you now or has lived with you in the past (if you are or were living as a family), or the other parent of your children whether or not you have ever been married or ever lived together. With the exception of persons who have a child in common, the family or household members must be currently residing together or have in the past resided together in the same single dwelling unit. If the respondent is not one of the above, you should look at Petition for Injunction for Protection Against Repeat Violence, Florida Supreme Court Approved Family Law Form 12.980(f), to determine if your situation will qualify for an injunction for protection against repeat violence, or Petition for Injunction for Protection Against Dating Violence, Florida Supreme Court Approved Family Law Form 12.980(n), to determine if your situation will qualify for an injunction for protection against dating violence, or Petition for Injunction for Protection Against Sexual Violence, Florida Supreme Court Approved Family Law Form 12.980(q), to determine if your situation will qualify for an injunction for protection against sexual violence.

If you are under the age of eighteen and you have never been married or had the disabilities of nonage removed by a court, then one of your parents, custodians, or your legal guardian must sign this petition with you.

This form should be typed or printed in black ink. You should complete this form (giving as much detail as possible) and sign it in front of a notary public or the clerk of the circuit court in the county where you live. The clerk will take your completed petition to a judge. You should keep a copy for your records. If you have any questions or need assistance completing this form, the clerk or family law intake staff will help you.

What should I do if the judge grants my petition?

If the facts contained in your petition convince the judge that you are a victim of domestic violence or that an imminent danger of domestic violence exists, the judge will sign either an immediate Temporary Injunction for Protection Against Domestic Violence with Minor Child(ren), Florida Supreme Court Approved Family Law Form 12.980(c)(1) or an immediate Temporary Injunction for Protection Against Domestic Violence without Minor Child(ren), Florida Supreme Court Approved Family Law Form 12.980(c)(2). A temporary injunction is issued without notice to the respondent. The clerk will give your petition, the temporary injunction, and any other papers filed with your petition to the sheriff or other law enforcement officer for personal service on the respondent. The temporary injunction will take effect immediately after the respondent is served with a copy of it. It lasts until a full hearing can be held or for a period of 15 days, whichever comes first. The court may extend the temporary injunction beyond 15 days for a good reason, which may include failure to obtain service on the respondent.

The temporary injunction is issued ex parte. This means that the judge has considered only the information presented by one side—YOU. The temporary injunction gives a date that you must appear in court for a hearing. At that hearing, you will be expected to testify about the facts in your petition. The respondent will be given the opportunity to testify at this hearing, also. At the hearing, the judge will decide whether to issue either a Final Judgment of Injunction for Protection Against Domestic Violence with Minor Child(ren) (After Notice), Florida Supreme Court Approved Family Law Form 12.980(d)(1), or a Final Judgment of Injunction for Protection Against Domestic Violence without Minor Child(ren) (After Notice), Florida Supreme Court Approved Family Law Form 12.980(d)(2). Either of these final judgments will remain in effect for a specific time period or until modified or dissolved by the court. If either you or the respondent do not appear at the final hearing, the temporary injunction may be continued in force, extended, or dismissed, and/or additional orders may be granted, including entry of a permanent injunction and the imposition of court costs. You and respondent will be bound by the terms of any injunction issued at the final hearing.

IF EITHER YOU OR RESPONDENT DO NOT APPEAR AT THE FINAL HEARING, YOU WILL BOTH BE BOUND BY THE TERMS OF ANY INJUNCTION ISSUED IN THIS MATTER.

If the judge signs a temporary or final injunction, the clerk will provide you with the necessary copies. Make sure that you keep one certified copy of the injunction with you at all times!

What can I do if the judge denies my petition?

If your petition is denied solely on the grounds that it appears to the court that no imminent danger of domestic violence exists, the court will set a full hearing, at the earliest possible time, on your petition, unless you request that no hearing be set. The respondent will be notified by personal service of your petition and the hearing. If your petition is denied, you may: amend your petition by filing a Supplemental Affidavit in Support of Petition for Injunction for Protection Against Domestic Violence, Repeat or Dating Violence, Florida Family Law Form 12.980 (g); attend the hearing and present facts that support your petition; and/or dismiss your petition.

Where can I look for more information?

Before proceeding, you should read General Information for Self-Represented Litigants found at the beginning of these forms. The words that are in bold underline are defined in that section. The clerk of the circuit court or family law intake staff will help you complete any necessary domestic violence forms and can give you information about local domestic violence victim assistance programs, shelters, and other related services. This form is used to provide the required notice to the court.

This form should be typed or printed in black ink. It must be filed with the clerk of the circuit court with the initial pleading in the family law case.

What should I do next?

A copy of the form must be served on the presiding judges, either the chief judge or the family law administrative judge, and all parties in the related cases. You should also keep a copy for your records. Service must be in accordance with Florida Rule of General Practice and Judicial Administration 2.516.

Where can I look for more information?

INSTRUCTIONS FOR FLORIDA SUPREME COURT APPROVED FAMILY LAW
FORM 12.902(d)
UNIFORM CHILD CUSTODY JURISDICTION AND ENFORCEMENT ACT
(UCCJEA) AFFIDAVIT
(02/18)

When should this form be used?

This form should be used in any case involving parental responsibility for, custody of, or time-sharing or visitation with, any minor child(ren). This affidavit is required even if the parental responsibility for, custody of, or time-sharing or visitation with, the minor child(ren) is not in dispute.

This form should be typed or printed in black ink. After completing this form, you should sign the form before a notary public or deputy clerk. You should then file it with the clerk of the circuit court in the county where the petition was filed and keep a copy for your records.

IMPORTANT INFORMATION REGARDING E-FILING

The Florida Rules of Judicial Administration now require that all petitions, pleadings, and documents be filed electronically except in certain circumstances. Self-represented litigants may file petitions or other pleadings or documents electronically; however, they are not required to do so. If you choose to file your pleadings or other documents electronically, you must do so in accordance with Florida Rule of Judicial Administration 2.525, and you must follow the procedures of the judicial circuit in which you file. The rules and procedures should be carefully read and followed

What should I do next?

A copy of this form must be mailed, e-mailed, or hand delivered to the other party in your case, if it is not served on him or her with your initial papers.

IMPORTANT INFORMATION REGARDING E-SERVICE ELECTION

After the initial service of process of the petition or supplemental petition by the Sheriff or certified process server, the Florida Rules of Judicial Administration now require that all documents required or permitted to be served on the other party must be served by electronic mail (e-mail) except in certain circumstances. You must strictly comply with the format requirements set forth in the Rules of Judicial Administration. If you elect to participate in electronic service, which means serving or receiving pleadings by electronic mail (e-mail), or through the Florida Courts E-Filing Portal, you must review Florida Rule of Judicial Administration 2.516. You may find this rule at www.flcourts.org through the link to the Rules of Judicial Administration provided under either Family Law Forms: Getting Started, or Rules of Court in the

A-Z Topical Index.

SELF-REPRESENTED LITIGANTS MAY SERVE DOCUMENTS BY E-MAIL; HOWEVER, THEY ARE NOT REQUIRED TO DO SO. If a self-represented litigant elects to serve and receive documents by e-mail, the procedures must always be followed once the initial election is made.

To serve and receive documents by e-mail, you must designate your e-mail addresses by using the Designation of Current Mailing and E-mail Address, Florida Supreme Court Approved Family Law Form 12.915, and you must provide your e-mail address on each form on which your signature appears. Please CAREFULLY read the rules and instructions for: Certificate of Service (General), Florida Supreme Court Approved Family Law Form 12.914; Designation of Current Mailing and E-mail Address, Florida Supreme Court Approved Family Law Form 12.915; and Florida Rule of Judicial Administration 2.516.

Where can I look for more information?

Before proceeding, you should read General Information for Self-Represented Litigants found at the beginning of these forms. The words that are in bold underline in these instructions are defined there. For further information, see sections 61.501-61.542, Florida Statutes.

Special notes...

With this form, you must also file a Notice of Confidential Information within Court Filing, Florida Rules of Judicial Administration Appendix to Rule 2.420 Form.

Effective October 1, 2008, terms such as custodial parent, noncustodial parent, primary residential parent, secondary residential parent, and visitation were removed from Chapter 61, Florida Statutes; however, because the UCCJEA uses the terms, custody and visitation, they are included in this form. Parents must develop a Parenting Plan that includes, among other things, their time-sharing schedule with the minor child(ren). If the parents cannot agree, a parenting plan will be established by the Court.

If you are the petitioner in an injunction for protection against domestic violence case and you have filed a Request for Confidential Filing of Address, Florida Supreme Court Approved Family Law Form 12.980(h), you should write confidential in any space on this form that would require you to write the address where you are currently living.

PREPPING FOR INJUNCTION HEARINGS 101 AND WHAT TO EXPECT

CASE # _____

- There are security guards and procedures at the doors of the courthouse and the parking may be difficult. Please budget your time accordingly.
- Roll call is taken beforehand so please be on time.
- If Petitioners are not present at the time the case is called the case may be dismissed.
- The way you dress shows respect to the Court
 - o Dress appropriately – suit, dress, skirt and top, pants, pant suits
 - o Avoid, if possible, sporty or casual clothes – jeans, cut offs, torn or revealing clothes, flip-flops, tank-tops, hats, etc.
 - o Advise your witnesses to dress appropriately as well
- Look for the Lee Conlee or Law Enforcement Domestic Violence Victim’s Advocates as you enter the Courtroom. They usually sit in the back, immediately to your right, as you enter the courtroom – identify yourself before Court begins.
- Cell phones must be TURNED OFF and PAGERS on VIBRATE before entering the courtroom. Upon going off they may be confiscated by the Court. Advise your witnesses of this rule.
- All hearings are RECORDED – if you need to speak with your attorney or a victim’s advocate, please ask them to step outside of the courtroom with you.
- Your children are NOT ALLOWED in the courtroom unless they have been pre-approved by the JUDGE. Children may wait outside the courtroom if accompanied by an adult. IF the children are not witnesses who have been pre-approved to testify, DO NOT BRING THEM TO COURT.
- BRING YOUR WITNESSES AND EVIDENCE TO COURT (pictures, tape recordings, etc.). REMEMBER- this is the time to present your case – YOU have the BURDEN of proving your case with COMPETENT SUBSTANTIAL EVIDENCE. One person’s word against another’s, WITHOUT CORROBORATING EVIDENCE, usually does not meet the burden of proof.
- The Court will normally give a ONE TIME CONTINUANCE to seek the assistance of an Attorney. You should give STRONG consideration to hiring an attorney to represent your interest. Community Legal Services of Mid-Florida may be able to provide you with an attorney free of charge. It is your responsibility to make the appointment with their attorney and meet ahead of time if possible. Time is of the essence when hiring an attorney as final hearings are held within 2-weeks of filing the injunction pursuant to Florida Law.

- Speak audibly and clearly into the microphone when testifying. Remember the Judge is listening, even if he/she is not looking at you. The Judge is ALWAYS called "YOUR HONOR" or "JUDGE".
- TELL YOUR STORY – Do not assume the Judge is familiar with your case – tell your story slowly and to the point. If multiple incidents have occurred, begin with the most severe or most recent.
- WHEN THE JUDGE IS SPEAKING, PLEASE REFRAIN FROM SPEAKING – If the Judge interrupts you STOP speaking IMMEDIATELY and answer the question directly – Then ask the Judge if you may continue to speak or the Judge may tell you to continue.
- When there is a legal objection, PLEASE STOP SPEAKING IMMEDIATELY, so the Judge can make the appropriate ruling. Please advise your witnesses to do the same.
- DO NOT INTERRUPT the other side when they are speaking – everyone will have ample time and opportunity to present their case before the Court.
- Child Support can be awarded in injunction cases but only if it is properly pled for and the Petitioner asks for it during the hearing.
- If you have legal representation, please have your attorney speak with the opposing party or the opposing parties' attorney before your case is called. If the opposing parties' attorney approaches you, do not speak to them other than to advise them that you have an attorney, or will be hiring one. If you do not have representation, you may speak with them directly if you want to.

RESPONDENT'S FREQUENTLY PRESENT THEMSELVES IN THE FOLLOWING MANNER:

- May acknowledge family problems, or that an incident occurred, but will deny any violence.
- When confronted about his/her behavior, may respond by saying, "She/He bruises easily," "She/He was hysterical", "She/He was drunk or high", or "I had to restrain them".
- May contact you before the hearing to persuade you to drop the Protection Order. Report any violations of the Temporary Injunction to local Law Enforcement IMMEDIATELY.

When meeting with your attorney, please bring the following documents: Police Reports, Violation of Injunction Information, Witness list with addresses, Pending or Past Divorce or Custody Papers. Preserve all evidence such as Letters, Emails, Voice Mails, and Pictures. If you know the Respondent has been convicted of Battery or any other Violent Crime, let your attorney know the County and Date of any Convictions.

VIOLATIONS OF THE INJUNCTION, whether TEMPORARY or PERMENANT, may include ANY contact with you directly or indirectly. This includes personal, telephonic, e-mail, facebook, or a message through a third person. Any Violation should be reported to local Law Enforcement IMMEDIATELY and you should ask for the case number they create. If it is an EMERGENCY, CALL 911. VIOLATIONS can also be reported to the CLERK OF COURT. The Clerk can provide you with the paperwork to report the Violation to the State Attorney's Office.
